

How to Read the Jewish Study Bible Online via your Harvard Library Privileges

1. Enter in your browser the URL <http://www.oxfordbiblicalstudies.com.ezp-prod1.hul.harvard.edu/> (link) and you will be directed to Harvard Key login.
2. When logged in successfully, after a considerable wait, you will see the Oxford Biblical Studies Online home page. Hover over “Bible Texts” in the navigation menu and you will see “Jewish Study Bible” as the third choice. Click on it. After another long delay, the JSB will be displayed.
3. Note that just above the biblical text there is a set of tabs with the choices “Text”, “Commentary”, and “side-by-side”. You may want to explore each of those ways of looking at the text.
4. You can actually print using the print icon at the upper far left but expect to wait 2 minutes or so for the printed version to be delivered from the Oxford server.
